WV BIRD RECORDS COMMITTEE REPORT FORM

Please Type or Print Legibly

Previous experience with this species: 30th of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times.  Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can	Habitat: (General and Specific) Fish hatchery pond with scattered patches of water.
ime. We were able to identify the Turnstone before it landed. After it landed we watched it for about 15 minutes with binoculars and a 30-power spotting scope.  Previous experience with this species: 30th of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times.  Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
ime. We were able to identify the Turnstone before it landed. After it landed we watched it for about 15 minutes with binoculars and a 60-power spotting scope.  Previous experience with this species: 30th of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times.  Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
ime. We were able to identify the Turnstone before it landed. After it landed we watched it for about 15 minutes with binoculars and a 60-power spotting scope.  Previous experience with this species: 30th of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times.  Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
ime. We were able to identify the Turnstone before it landed. After it landed we watched it for about 15 minutes with binoculars and a 60-power spotting scope.  Previous experience with this species: 30th of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times.  Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
ime. We were able to identify the Turnstone before it landed. After it landed we watched it for about 15 minutes with binoculars and a 60-power spotting scope.  Previous experience with this species: 30th of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times.  Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
ime. We were able to identify the Turnstone before it landed. After it landed we watched it for about 15 minutes with binoculars and a 30-power spotting scope.  Previous experience with this species: 30th of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times.  Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.	Circumstances of observation: (Include details of distance to hird, ontics employed, lighting in relation to observer and the hird)
Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.	While we were parked and watching the pond, the birds flew in to a location about 30 yards from us. There was a light drizzle at the time. We were able to identify the Turnstone before it landed. After it landed we watched it for about 15 minutes with binoculars and a 60-power spotting scope.
Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) I have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.  Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please) If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.	Previous experience with this species:  Both of us have seen Ruddy Turnstones many times
Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.	both of as have seen ready runnstance many times.
Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.	Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific) I have seen Black Turnstones many times on the western U.S. coast. There is really no chance of confusing an adult male Ruddy Turnstone in breeding plumage with anything else.
If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.
submit their own report.	Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can
Janet Keating	submit their own report.
	Janet Keating
Additional observer signature:	Additional observer signature:
Additional observer signature:	Additional observer signature: /
5	J
Additional observer signature:

Books, illustration Sibley Guide to B	ns and advice consulted, and especially how did these influence this description:  lirds
How long after 4 hours	observing this bird did you first write this description?
Name:	Mike Griffith
Address:
Date:
Signature:

Mail to: WV Bird Records Committee
Attn: Wil Hershberger
170 Stallion Ct.
Hedgesville, WV 25427
Or E-mail to:
wilhershberger@mac.com

WV BIRD RECORDS COMMITTEE REPORT FORM

Please Type or Print Legibly

Species:	Ruddy Turnstone	Number: (leave blank)
Location:	Huntington, WV	Date: 7/24/18	Time: 9:45 am
Bird Seen:	7/24/18 To: 7/25/18	Age/Sex: Adult Male
Description: In lieu of physical material substantiating a record (e.g., specimen, diagnostic photograph, vocal recordings) a complete written description can serve as verification for the biological record. Please be as thorough as your field notes allow. Do not feel constrained by the space provided. Additional supporting descriptions/illustrations may be attached. Note that photographs or recordings WILL NOT BE RETURNED but become part of the permanent record for the observation.
8-10 inc	(Overall size and shape plus details on the head, feet, tai hes tall; medium sized shorebird with shar with black streaks on crown and black strip	p pointed black beal
Adult ma	(e.g. markings, coloration, molt) alle breeding plumage; white head with blace contrasted with all-white belly; rusty and bl	10.5
Description of any vocalizations, if heard: None heard
Description Foraging	of behavior: g at edge of Ohio River

Habitat: (General and Specific) Ohio River bank, on concrete boat ramp, rocky covered bank, and muddy river bank
Circumstances of observation: (Include details of distance to bird, optics employed, lighting in relation to observer and the bird) Distance to bird - 10 yards Optics - Vortex Viper HD 10x42 Lighting - Sunny morning
Previous experience with this species: Have observed many Ruddy Turnstones on the shores of Atlantic and Gulf coast, as well as the banks of Lake Erie
Experiences with similarly appearing species which are eliminated by your description: (Please be specific)  I have observed all of the commonly appearing shorebirds in West Virginia. The only similar species is Killdeer of which I have observed hundreds.
Other observers: (Names, Addresses, E-mail please)  If the others agree with your identification they can sign this form here. If they care to provide additional details they can submit their own report.  David Patick -  Gary Rankin -  Mike Griffith -  Bryan and Shelly Smith -
Additional observer signature:
A A SOLITON DIGITALITY.
Additional observer signature:
Additional observer signature:

	ons and advice consulted, and especially how did these influence this description:  Guide to Birds
How long after 48 hours - a	observing this bird did you first write this description? nd after encouragement from several in-state birders
Name:	Josh Holland
Address:
Date:
Signature:

Mail to: WV Bird Records Committee
Attn: Wil Hershberger
170 Stallion Ct.
Hedgesville, WV 25427
Or E-mail to:
wilhershberger@mac.com

