

EASTERN SHORE TRIP 2007

November 7-8-9-10-11

Five days and four nights of ocean breezes and the surf lulling you to sleep each night coupled with great birding shared with good friends and great food is the perfect way to relax for a few days before winter's blast raises its nasty head.

All "shore goers" will be meeting up on Long Beach Island on Wednesday evening after dinner at our brand new motel, right on the beach. This will be home for two nights as we take in all the sights and sounds of Barnegat Lighthouse with its Snow Buntings, Harlequin Ducks, and Long-tailed Ducks to name a few. Then to the south end of the island for Gannets, Gulls, and Terns. Dinner at a local restaurant, a walk on the beach and to bed.

Friday morning we'll head south to Brigantine and John Forsyth Wildlife Refuge, the Avalon Sea Watch, and Cape May. Late afternoon we'll cross the Lewes Ferry to Rehoboth Beach where the next two nights will again be right on the beach at the plush Atlantic Sands Hotel.

Saturday will see us taking in the Delaware Bay coastline with all its wildlife areas including Bombay Hook and all those beautiful Snow Geese. A banquet dinner and to bed will finish up the day. Sunday morning, after breakfast and hotel check-out, we'll make a few more nearby stops before saying our goodbyes and heading home.

You may, of course, drive yourself or make plans to "leave the driving to us" as we'll be taking vans from Wheeling with stops along the way.

Price includes Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights lodging (double occupancy); Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday morning breakfast; Thursday, Friday, and Saturday lunch; and banquet dinner on Saturday. Single rooms are available with a supplement. A full itinerary complete with maps, phone numbers, and addresses of where we'll be staying will be sent to everyone who signs up.
