

BONUS BIRD WEEKEND

Petersburg, WV

July 22-24, 2005

We are changing locations this year and will be staying at the Wilderdest Inn in Grant County, West Virginia. Located between the George Washington and Monongahela National Forests and within thousands of acres of natural forest, Wilderdest Inn is a secluded hideaway on its own 80 acres. One can watch the hawks soaring in the sky, deer at the pond, periodic parades of wild turkey and visits by curious black bears. You can enjoy quiet time, either in the private spaces of the Inn itself, i.e., a hot tub, or wandering through the beautiful acreage. At the bottom of the property is the almost mile-long South Mill Creek Lake where guests can make use of the Wilderdest canoe and limited fishing gear. In addition there is a two-mile nature trail around the lake for hiking or jogging and, of course, there's trout and bass fishing.

We will be close to Dolly Sods, Smoke Hole Caverns, Seneca Rocks, and Spruce Knob. The Inn is located 12 miles south of Petersburg, WV. This will be another reasonably priced weekend. We will have the "sign-up sheet" posted when you arrive to help the cooks with the meals. Camp will officially open at 7:00 p.m. Make sure you stop for dinner before arriving. Except for snack Friday night, the first scheduled meal will be Saturday morning breakfast. We will pack our lunch for the all day trip on Sat. and have dinner at camp. Sun. breakfast and lunch are included before we breakup camp.

Accommodations will be a different arrangement this year. The Wilderdest Inn has two facilities. #1 is "The Inn" which has six rooms, all with queen beds and private baths. The rate for these rooms will be $115 per person, double occupancy. #2 is "The Lodge" which has six bedrooms, all queen beds but three of which also have a set of bunk beds. Two bathrooms are available for sharing. The rate for The Lodge is $90 per person, double occupancy. Both facilities are in close proximity to each other. All meals will be in the Lodge. Maps will be sent upon receipt of reservation.
