

2017 HELPING BIRDS ALONG THE WAY International Migratory Bird Day

Join Canaan Valley NWR in celebrating migratory birds with free educational and outdoor activities.

Sunday, April 30:

12:00 – 4:00 p.m. Aves and Art

Learn watercolor techniques for painting birds. Meet at the Buxton and Landstreet Gallery in Thomas. Only 15 spots available, email lauren\_merrill@fws.gov to reserve.

Thursday, May 11:

6:30 p.m. Birding Basics

Presentation for beginner bird watchers on identification basics.

Friday, May 12:

10:00 a.m. Storytime: Birds

8:00 p.m. American Woodcock Walk

Saturday, May 13:

7:30 a.m. Bird Walk led by State Ornithologist Rich Bailey

1:00 p.m. Build your own Bird House

Sunday, May 21:

10:00 a.m. Birding by Boat

Meet at the Camp 70 and Brown Mountain Trailhead. Bring your own kayak, canoe, or boat. Life jackets required.

For all events meet at 6263 Appalachian Highway, Davis, WV 26260 unless otherwise specified. For more information check Canaan Valley National Wildlife Refuge's Facebook.

Contact Lauren Merrill at lauren\_merrill@fws.gov with questions or concerns.

©Rocio Landivar for International Migratory Bird Day