

The Hungry Beech Preserve

Directions

Turn east at end of exit ramp, towards Clendenin.

At the Park & Ride parking lot immediately East of the interstate interchange turn, left onto Rt. 119 north.

Follow Rt. 119 North for 8 miles, reaching top of hill.

Turn left onto Ambler Ridge Road, at old (now closed) Huffman Country Store.

Travel 3.4 miles onto paved Ambler Ridge Road, reaching local mailbox address of 1702 Ambler Ridge Road on the right.

Turn left onto gravel Paxton Ridge Road, at a blue house which is located at the intersection across from 1702 Ambler Ridge Road.

Follow Paxton Ridge Road for 3.1 miles to preserve on the right.

Trailhead into preserve is marked by old locked pipe gate with TNC preserve signs on trees. Park along edge of state road.

Follow old road in to first large field and watch for trailhead sign at woods' edge on your left. Trail is sparsely marked, but woods are welcoming for an exploratory walk.

